SUMMARY REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE SERIES

Topic of Guest Lecture Series : Employability Enhancement & Youth Livelihood Program - Mahindra Pride Classroom Project of Naandi Foundation

Resource Person: Ms. Manjiri Hirnakhe, Mahindra Pride Classrooms-Naandi Foundation

Conducted on: 6th To 12th July, 2023, final year b.pharm students

PES Modern College of Pharmacy (for ladies), Moshi, Pune, has arranged a Employability Enhancement & Youth Livelihood Program by the resource person Ms. Manjiri Hirnakhe. Introduction of the program and resource person was given by Final Year B. Pharm Student. Speaker was welcomed by our respected Principal Dr. Shashikant Dhole sir with bouquet of flowers. In his sessions

In inaugural session Ms. Manjiri Hirnakhe gave information about Naandi Foundation – she told that Naandi, in Sanskrit, is a 'new beginning,' is one of the largest and fastest-growing social sector organizations in India working to make poverty history. Founded in November 1998 as a Public Charitable Trust, Naandi was born to fulfill the need for a professionally run organization in the social development sector of India. Governed by eminent business leaders as life trustees, Naandi is a novel functional model.

Naandi has showcased successful large-scale delivery of public services such as:

- Skilling and employment for youth
- Elementary education with positive discrimination against girls
- Early childhood development, including tackling malnutrition amongst children
- Large scale cooperative irrigated farming in dry land areas
- End-to-end sustainable agriculture in tribal areas

Ms. Manjiri Hirnakhe delivered sessions as per below mentioned framework to our final b.pharm students. 24 students attended sessions
